

Topics

Dimsum's articles are often based around topics or themes. We've grouped the articles here according to these themes.

Chinatown redevelopment

Join the campaign to help save London's Chinatown from big commercial developers

Immigration

An often-contentious issue, find out about immigration issues that affect the Chinese community.

Chinese New Year

The most important and widely recognised festival in the Chinese calendar, find out more about this exciting annual event.

Martial arts

Find out how martial arts affect the lives of our contributors

Cockle pickers

Read about the cockle pickers that died in the Morecambe Bay tragedy.

Mid autumn festival

Read about the Mid Autumn festival which is the second most important festival in the Chinese calendar

Crouching tiger controversy

Explore the controversy surrounding the Guardian's review of this internationally acclaimed film.

Racism

Our writers discuss issues of racism that affect their lives in the UK

Dover 58

Find out more about the plight of the 58 Chinese immigrants who were found dead in Dover.

Relationships

Find out how our writers from a variety of backgrounds deal with friendship, love and family.

Film festival

Explore how Dimsum collaborated with the Scotland China organisation to hold the first ever British Chinese film festival.

Technology

Shane M Coughlan's blog about Europe, China and technology.

Food & Catering

Find out about issues concerning the backbone to Chinese industry in the UK.

Vietnam

Our writers explore topics about Vietnam

Foot & Mouth Disease

Dimsum and the Chinese community fought back at allegations that the foot and mouth crisis of 2001 was started through Chinese catering. Find out more.

Women

Dimsum explore issues concerning women

Health

Dimsum explore health issues concerning the Chinese community

Work

Comment and articles of experiences of Chinese people working in the UK.

Identity

Living within two cultures can create issues or surprises, conflict or emotional reward. Our contributors discuss their experiences.